A packing list for a slow trip

Written for the ViewsPress demo site: a travel journal that does not exist.

Papers

- Passport or identity card, and a copy kept apart
- Train and ferry tickets, printed or on the phone
- Travel insurance details

Clothes

- Light layers, and one warm jumper for evenings and ferries
- Comfortable shoes for cobbles and stairs
- A scarf or shawl for churches and cool trains
- Swimwear, even out of season

Small things

- A refillable water bottle
- A plug adapter and a short extension lead
- A folding bag for markets
- A notebook and a pen for the journey
- Sun cream and a hat

Before you leave

- Check the timetables: regional trains change with the seasons
- Save offline maps of the towns on the route
- Leave a day free; there is always a town worth one more night